

The UH Department of Comparative
Cultural Studies

presents a

Symposium

on Mapping the "Venezuelan" Crisis

Mapping the "Venezuelan" Crisis

30 April 2021

2.00-6.00 pm

Panel One: THE "VENEZUELAN" CRISIS: A HISTORY OF THE PRESENT

2.00 – 6.00 pm (CTS)

Dr. Miguel Tinker Salas, Pomona College, U.S.

Panel Two: MAPPING A MANY-TENTACLED EXODUS: (IM)MOBILITIES, BORDERS, POLITICS, SPACE

2.00 - 5.00 pm (CTS)

Dr. Gioconda Herrera, FLACSO, Ecuador

Dr. João Carlos Jarochinski, Universidade Federal de Roraima, Brazil

Dr. Natalie Dietrich Jones, University of the West Indies, Jamaica

Dr. Shiva Mohan, Wilfrid Laurier University, Canada

Geógrafo Marco Morales, Universidad Autónoma de Santo Domingo

Dr. Masaya Llaveneras-Blanco, Huron University College, Canada

Panel Three: WHAT'S LEFT? CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES FOR THE INTER/NATIONAL LEFT

5.00 – 6.00 pm (CTS)

Dr. Sujatha Fernandes, University of Sydney, Australia

Dr. Miguel Tinker Salas, Pomona College, U.S.

Moderators:

Dr. Keith E. McNeal, University of Houston

Dr. Soledad Álvarez Velasco, University of Houston

Dr. Nicholas De Genova, University of Houston

[https://uh.edu/class/
ccs/events/live](https://uh.edu/class/ccs/events/live)

Illustration provided by:
Corredores Migratorios