

HISTORY RESEARCH COLLOQUIUM

Transformations, Practices and Environmental Discourses, and Urbanization in the City of Mexico in the Nineteenth Century

Visiting scholar Sergio Miranda Pacheco will discuss the link between environmental transformations of the Valley of Mexico and urbanization of Mexico City during the nineteenth century. His research reveals a social order marked by centralization of power and broader inequalities that resulted in desiccation of the Valley and growth of a city in perpetual social and environmental imbalance.

Wednesday
March 27, 2019
11:30 am – 1:00 pm
Agnes Arnold Hall
Room 214

Dr. Sergio Miranda Pacheco is a Marie Curie International Research Fellow, Investigador Titular B, Area de Historia Moderna y Contemporánea, Instituto de Investigaciones Históricas, UNAM

For more information or to confirm your attendance, please, contact Julie Cohn at jacohn@uh.edu