

HOBBY FELLOWS provides University of Houston undergraduate students the opportunity to learn and serve as government interns in Austin during the biennial Texas legislative sessions.

Hobby Fellows are assigned to offices of members of the Texas Legislature and work full-time from January through May while the legislature is in session.

They gain first-hand knowledge of the legislative process by observation, participation, research, and writing. They also attend meetings, committee hearings and meet with constituents and lobbyists in addition to completing traditional office duties.

Hobby Fellows are provided with a monthly stipend which are given through corporate and private sponsors.

For more information, please see the Hobby Fellows webpage.

Eligibility Requirements

- Must be a junior or senior at the University of Houston during the fall 2024 semester (before January 2024). Students graduating fall 2024 are eligible for the program and must enroll as a post-baccalaureate student if selected for the program.

Ideal candidates will possess

- Outstanding academic achievement
- Strong writing ability
- Excellent interpersonal skills
- Demonstrated dedication to public service through volunteerism in school and/or community activities
- Government internship or campaign experience

Personal interviews, academic achievement, writing ability, community and school activities, previous internship and/or professional experience, and financial hardship are factors in the selection process.

Program Requirements

Hobby Fellows work a minimum of 40 hours per week, participate in seminars, and complete various academic assignments, making them eligible for 3-12 academic credit hours. All Hobby Fellows must be enrolled for the appropriate hours/classes at the University of Houston before the initial stipend is issued. Proof of enrollment is required.

Application Packet
