I liked the lectures and the experience that Dr. Kretlow brings into the course.

15. What have you liked least about this course and why?

I struggled with the problem sets because I felt I needed more examples to solve some of the problems.

16. Other comments and suggestions.

It was a great class that met my expectations. Finance is a difficult subject that requires lots of brainpower. Fortunately for me I took some of that math brain power.

III. COMMENTS/SUGGESTIONS

14. What have you liked most about this course and why?

Relevant and insightful considering the current economic conditions. He was very passionate about the material.

15. What have you liked least about this course and why?

There were times that he seemed to think that we should already know the material and responded to questions as though we shouldn't "need" to ask that. It seemed to forget that many of us to new were to finance or had limited knowledge and that HE was the expert, not us.

16. Other comments and suggestions.

The organization of the materials, at times, seemed random, and it was hard to connect. It got better throughout the course and he seemed more understanding (especially after the hurricane). Although we are honors students, that does not mean that we already know the material or will immediately pick it up. However, it does mean that we will try hard to understand.
