Letter from the DIRECTOR

With great excitement, I am joining the distinguished faculty, staff, alums and students as the new Director of the Moores School of Music at the University of Houston. It is an absolute honor to present you with the brilliant and world-class performing artists on our team at UH. With my fresh ears, I am eager to experience these shows with you this season. I invite you to re-engage with some of your past favorites, explore something new and outside your comfort zone, and eagerly anticipate the exciting things to come. Know that I readily accept the weight of this new position as Director of the Moores School and that I see us poised to make a brilliant demonstration of the power of a 21st-century music education and I am excited to participate in this new era at the Moores School of Music. Join us on this journey!
