

Funding Available for Graduate Students

These fellowships and awards are administered by the Graduate School. Full details can be found here: <http://www.uh.edu/graduate-school/graduate-funding/>

Graduate School Fund

The Graduate School Fund (GSF) provides financial assistance for state of Texas resident graduate students who demonstrate financial need. Award amounts will be based on a student's financial need, enrollment level, and the availability of funds. The GSF can only be applied to the cost of tuition and mandatory fees.

Graduate School Stella L. Ehrhardt Scholarship

The Graduate School Stella L. Ehrhardt Scholarship is a two-year fellowship available to admitted students entering a master's program at the University of Houston. Selections for this scholarship are made by each respective college.

Cullen Fellowship Travel Grant

The Cullen Fellowship Travel Grant (CFTG) is a competitive fellowship program established to support graduate student travel to meetings, conferences, performances, and exhibits to showcase their research and scholarly work. This travel grant program is designed both to enhance professional development opportunities for students and to further promote the status of the University of Houston as a Carnegie-designated Tier One research university. The CFTG is open to all masters, doctorate, and professional students.
