

Daniel Cohen
President, Indivisible Houston

Daniel J. Cohen is the President of Indivisible Houston, a nonpartisan progressive organization that advocates for government of, by, and for The People through education, engagement, and mass action. Inspired by the Indivisible Guide, Indivisible Houston has led and supported actions that affect the Houston metropolitan area at all levels of government, including justice and equity for those affected by Harvey, healthcare, criminal justice, education, and immigration. Daniel is a proud Houston native with a degree in political science from American University in Washington, DC and a master's degree in communications with a focus in public relations from the University of Houston. He believes deeply in his country and the power of assembly.
