

Steven Garza
Student Activist

Steven Garza is one of the youngest and most adept politicians in Texas. A junior at Mayde Creek High School, he got into politics at 14. Steven has worked in numerous local, state and nationwide organizations and campaigns at every level. In February 2018, he was tasked with organizing and leading the March for our Lives Houston (MFOLH), an event that raised over $25,000 and had an attendance of over 15,000. Steven's current projects include working on congressional and senate campaigns, as well as founding and leading a successor organization to MFOLH, the Rise Up PAC, whose goals are to raise money and support for candidates, legislation and groups that are working to help bring change and address the issues affecting students today.
